Dear Brothers in Christ,

As we welcome the month of June, our thoughts are gently drawn to the Sacred Heart of Jesus—a heart that loves without limit, suffers with us, and never ceases to forgive. In this tender devotion, we are invited to rest in the mercy of Christ and renew our calling to be His instruments of healing and reconciliation.

For us, children of Our Lady of La Salette, this month holds a special grace. The message of La Salette and the devotion to the Sacred Heart are united by the same longing: to bring God's people back to the embrace of divine love. Mary's tears on the mountain mirror the love poured out from the Heart of her Son—both expressions of deep sorrow for humanity's forgetfulness, and even more, of enduring hope.

At La Salette, Mary did not come with condemnation, but with a mother's aching plea: a call to conversion born of love. Her voice, though sorrowful, speaks of compassion. Her words—“If my people do not submit...”—are not threats, but cries from a heart longing to see her children return. In them, we hear the same voice that echoed from Calvary: “Father, forgive them...”

In the light of this sacred month, we also carry the grace of our recent Council of the Congregation in the Philippines. It was a time of prayer, reflection, and renewal for our La Salette family across the world. We were reminded, in a profound way, that our vocation is not simply to preach reconciliation, but to embody it—to live with hearts shaped by Mary's tears and Christ's compassion.

This is the mission entrusted to us: not to speak of mercy from a distance, but to walk with the suffering, to listen with tenderness, and to serve with humility. The Sacred Heart of Jesus, and the message of La Salette, call us to a deeper, quieter conversion of heart—one that makes space for the pain of others and allows God's healing to flow through us.

This June, may we renew our devotion to the Sacred Heart not only in prayer, but in action. May we allow our ministries, our relationships, and our very lives to be rooted in the love that flows from His Pierced Heart and Mary's sorrowful gaze. Let us be, ever more, humble missionaries of reconciliation—bringing the hope of Christ to a world in need. Let us take this time to renew not just our spiritual practices, but our inner disposition—so that the fire of the Sacred Heart may rekindle in us the joy of the Gospel, the strength for service, and the tenderness of true fraternity. May our witness speak more loudly than words, and may our hearts become safe places where others can encounter God.

May Our Lady of La Salette, who wept out of love, lead us ever closer to the Heart of her Son. May she teach us to see through the eyes of mercy, to speak words of healing, and to live as bearers of peace.

Humbly in Christ and Our Lady of La Salette
